

CARPENTIER WINS EUROPEAN CROWN

Frenchman Stops Beckett in One Minute and 12 Seconds.

ROYALTY SEES BATTLE

Prince of Wales and Other Titled Englishmen Pay Carpenter Tribute.

HOLBORN STADIUM, LONDON, Dec. 4.—George Carpentier, the French champion, knocked out Joe Beckett, champion of England, tonight in a brief and decisively one-sided fight for the heavyweight championship of Europe.

Seventy-four seconds, as announced by the official timekeeper, decided the fight. Carpentier, the American heavyweight, for the championship of the world in June next. From the moment the referee, R. J. Angell, called time, Carpentier had the battle entirely in his own hands. He landed a few punches on the Englishman, who landed blows with enormous strength whenever he felt inclined.

Carpentier Cheered. Amid absolute stillness most of the spectators could hear the terrific crack of the swing that put Beckett to sleep. There was a roar of cheering as Carpentier assisted Beckett to his corner, where the English boxer opened his astonished eyes and saw his opponent being carried on the shoulders of some of the enthusiastic fans around the ring—and the Frenchman was smiling happily.

The contestants presented a notable difference in appearance when they stripped and were introduced—Beckett, swarthy and muscular, Carpentier, white skinned with slight figure. Carpentier looked about him as though accustomed to his surroundings; Beckett seemed somewhat nervous.

Peers and peeresses, members of the house of commons, high officials of state, many women, most of them in evening dress, and the Prince of Wales, newly returned from his American trip, looked the fighters over critically as they squared up.

Fight Not Spectacular. As a fight, the contest was not spectacular. Carpentier was fast on his feet, dancing in and out and playing havoc with the Englishman from the first lead. With lightning swiftness, Carpentier left leaped out and caught Beckett on the face and a suppressed sigh was audible all over the house. A quick break away followed a short clinch, and the Frenchman landed two more hard lefts.

Beckett, with a sort of bull dog determination, forced Carpentier almost to the ropes. But this was a diversion for a moment only, for the Frenchman stepped back and then forward and with all his strength

"I HAVE GAINED 15 POUNDS," BEEWER SAYS

Overcomes Troubles in Two Weeks Time Taking Orgatone and is Back On The Job.

"It's the honest truth, before I had taken this Orgatone treatment two weeks I was feeling well and strong and could go back to my work and put in a full day like I use too," said L. F. Beewer, a well known plasterer of Wichita Falls, Texas, while in Young's drug store the other day.

"I had a very bad case of stomach trouble and indigestion," he continued, "that knocked me out so I simply could hardly do a full day's work and go to it right. My stomach was in such an awful fix everything I would eat disagreed with me and made me miserable all the time. I felt run-down, tired out and good for nothing most of the time and before taking Orgatone treatment I wasn't able to put in a full day's work at all."

"So many people were talking about the world of good Orgatone was doing them, so I got me a bottle to try. Well, sir, it sure surprised me, for I began to feel better right from the very first bottle, and before the second week was out I was back on my job feeling like a new man and the best of it all is I have gained 15 pounds in weight. I never saw anything in my life before to give such quick relief as this Orgatone, and I haven't had a single symptom of my trouble since I started it."

Orgatone is no a so-called patent or secret remedy but a new scientific treatment absolutely free from alcohol in any form and is sold in Tulsa by Roy R. Bennett's local store exclusively under the personal direction of a special Orgatone representative. Other agents are the Rexall Store, West Tulsa.—Adv.

TRIUMPH FOR JOHNSON

Supreme Court Reverses Decision in Which American League Head Is Reinstated.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4.—After hearing arguments on the application of the New York-American league club for an order restraining President Johnson from calling the annual meeting of the board of directors and members of the American league in Chicago December 19, the Supreme Court today reversed its previous decision.

He also gave counsel for both sides until tomorrow afternoon to file additional affidavits and submit briefs. Marcus W. Wynn, attorney for Mr. Johnson, read from an affidavit by the American league executive which stated he was not only president but secretary and treasurer of the league, and as such had always been in the habit of sending out the notices for the annual meeting and that he Johnson had been asked by five members of the league to call the meeting for Chicago.

Charles H. Tuttle, a lawyer representing the New York club, contended that Johnson had exceeded his authority and had assumed powers not conferred on him under the constitution and by-laws of the league. He asserted that the right to call the meeting rested solely with the board of directors.

"Let me get this straight," Justice Greenbaum said. "Is it not President Johnson a servant of the board of directors? If he is a servant of the board why do they not dismiss him if they don't like the way he manages things?"

"Why your honor," Mr. Tuttle replied. "Mr. Johnson claims that he is elected president for 20 years at a salary of $25,000 a year and that he is under a contract and can not be discharged."

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 4.—The historic French opera house at Bourbon and Toulouse streets, scene of the debut in the United States of Adelina Patti and where many of the most noted singers of the world have been heard, was destroyed today by fire. The loss was estimated at $200,000.

The opera house was erected 60 years ago, being formally opened in December, 1859. During the civil war the house was closed, but in 1864 it was reopened. The new director was on his way from France with a large company of artists on board the "Evening Star," but the ship foundered and the entire troupe perished. Among those who went down were the architect, James Callier and his wife.

Rader Sold to Beaumont.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 4.—Don Rader, shortstop of the Portland baseball club of the Pacific Coast league, has been sold to the Beaumont club of the Texas league. It was announced today.

Rader may not report, according to comment based on the fact that he did not report a year ago to the St. Joseph club of the Western league when that club purchased him on the ground that he would not play except for Class AA clubs.

Harvard Invades Coast.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 4.—The Harvard football team which will invade the west to play a leading Pacific coast eleven at Pasadena on New Year's day will be virtually the same as that which went through the recent season without defeat.
